Belgium Celebrity Chef Michaël Vrijmoed Cooks at CasCades Restaurant

Ubud, BALI (November 2013) ~ Luxury destination resort Viceroy Bali is thrilled to announce a special dinner by a Belgium Celebrity Chef, Michaël Vrijmoed that will take place at its award winning CasCades Restaurant, on the 28th of December 2013 starting at 7 p.m. Guests will have the opportunity to meet and experience Michaël's culinary delights at this exceptional dinner featuring a 6 course degustation menu with wine pairing.

Michaël's carrier flourished after being 3 Star Michelin Restaurant Peter Goossens's right-hand man for 8 years, since then he has gone on to recently open his own 1 star Micheline Star restaurant, Vrijmoed, his own cooking TV series, cooking for the king of Belgium and a "four hand-dinner"s with 2 Michelin Star San Hoon Degeimbre in his restaurant L'air du Temps and other world renound chefs.

Michael's dishes are orginal, creative and complex yet simple at the same time. His cooking motto 'less is more' and his respect for seasonal ingredients has brought him great acclaim in Europe. "I'm really looking forward to my visit in Bali where I will discover the local flavours and culinary traditions that are new for me" said Michaël Vrijmoed. CasCades Restaurant's Executive Chef Nic Vanderbeeken commented "It's nice to bring the flavours of my home to Bali for this special dinning experience and I'm excited to show Michaël some of the wonderful ingredients that Bali has to offer, we will definatly be visiting the local market together whilst Michael is here."
