MARCIA HOWARD

Australia's finest voice and songwriter

Solo Performance at CasCades Restaurant

Saturday, 19th April 2014, 7pm

Beginning in the triple Aria Award winning Goanna, for over 30 years Marcia Howard has mesmerized audiences with her beautiful voice, and skill as a piano player, guitarist/songwriter. Her solo CD's have achieved high praise. Marcia was first Australian female artist to feature on, A woman's heart a decade on, with her song, Poison Tree, singing with world renowned Irish singer, Mary Black along with other artists on that CD; Emmy Lou Harris, Dolly Parton, Sinead O'Connor and the Corrs.

Her song, Angel Full of Grace, featured on the successful Australian TV series, Sea change and she has shared the stage with some of the worlds most loved musicians, including America's James Taylor, Bob Dylan, Billy Connolly and Eric Clapton. 'Divine singing, clever song writing and a lifetime's stage craft', (Nick Charles- Rhythms Magazine) in unforgettable performances. Songs range from pristine ballads to roof raising potboilers.

'One of the most charismatic, gentle, spiritual musicians Australia has ever produced' (Cliff Ellery).
